

\ NEW BOTANICAL PAINTING*

*CLASS **
